How do I apply?

You can apply for the Creative Incubator program using our online application form:

<https://screen NSW.smartygrants.com.au/bpitip>

In the application form, you will be asked to provide contact information, and project details, including:

- Your CV or a short bio;
- A paragraph outlining your experience within the screen industry or other relevant experience and how your background meets the aims of the workshop;
- A synopsis of the project you are currently working on, including the stage of development;
- A one-page pitch document;
- Applicants need to provide proof of their legal status.
- If you are applying with a project that has been taken to other recent talent workshops supported by Screen NSW, please also note what progress or changes have been made to the project to date.

When can I apply?

Applications open: 3rd July at 9am AEST.

Applications close: 21st August at 4pm AEST.

How will my application be assessed?

Eligible applications will be considered by representatives from Bunya Productions and Screen NSW against the following criteria:

- The originality and distinctiveness of the project materials;
- The skills, experience and track record of the applicant and the potential to advance the individual's career;
- Their availability to attend all workshop days.

Successful applicants will be notified by email by on 7th September 2020 and will be required to enter into a grant agreement with Screen NSW. An acquittal must be submitted 3 months after the workshop.

What happens if my application is successful?

You will be notified of your successful application by email by 7th September 2020. (6 ½ weeks notice prior to workshop)

What happens if my application is unsuccessful?

You will be notified of your unsuccessful application by 28th August 2020 via email. We are happy to provide feedback on the assessment of your application.
